

Cork CIL Travel Club

Cork Centre for Independent Living (Cork CIL) 'Travel Club' is open to people with a disability and offers its members access to a wheelchair accessible, door to door transport service for appointments or for social activities. Currently the Travel Club operates five days a week Monday to Friday in Cork city and close suburbs. Longer journeys are by prior arrangement. Cork CIL has a wheelchair accessible vehicle, and one skilled driver. The bus can accommodate one wheelchair user and up to 2 other passengers at a time.

The Travel Club is not a service that is eligible for HSE funding. The cost of running the club must be fully covered. This is only possible with members contributions.
